

U.S. Department of Justice
Investigation of the South Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice

BRRC ISOLATION INFORMATION FORM

The U.S. Department of Justice has opened an investigation of the South Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice and its treatment of youth at the Broad River Road Complex. It is looking into allegations of physical and sexual abuse by other youth or staff, prolonged periods of solitary confinement, and the inability to keep inmates safe from harm. Your story is important to this investigation. Please complete the following form and return by mail, email, or fax to the contact information provided below. Thank you.

|   |                |                        |                            |               |
|---|----------------|------------------------|----------------------------|---------------|
| Name:                                   |                |                        |                            |               |
| Address/Facility Name:                  |                |                        |                            |               |
| Contact phone (list two if possible):   |                |                        | Email:                     |               |
| Optional demographic information |                |                        |                            |               |
| Age:                             | Gender: | Race/Ethnicity: | Preferred Language: | Other: |

|  |
|--|
| Date(s) of stay in isolation (include length of time for each stay):                 |
| Reason(s) for placement in isolation:  |
| How frequently were you checked by staff, including medical and mental health staff? |
| How many times a day were you allowed to leave your cell while in isolation?         |

